

Program At a Glance

APA 2023

| | Thursday August 3 | Friday August 4 | Saturday August 5 |
|-------|---|---|---|
| 8:00 | 8:30 Harm Reduction in Clinical Science: Diverse Application to Treatment Approaches | Right Turns, Hard Stops, and Finding Center: Lessons in Navigating a Career in Clinical Science | Society of Clinical Psychology provides Assistance to Ukrainian Psychologists |
| 9:00 | | EPPP: Protecting the American Public from Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion? | Culturally Responsive Implementation of Problem Solving Therapy for Suicide Prevention |
| 10:00 | | Ethics and Digital Mental Health | |
| 11:00 | My Journey as a Psychologist in an Academic Health Center: Leadership Lessons Learned | | |
| 12:00 | Integrating Cultural Information into Clinical Work-Wright-Constantine Structured Cultural Interview *CE credit offered | The Repercussions of COVID on Women: Challenges and Implications | |
| 1:00 | Linguistic Equity in Psychological Assessment *CE credit offered | Guidelines for Psychological Practice with Older Adults 2023: Clinical and Research Implications *CE credit offered | |
| 2:00 | Beyond a Damage-Centered LGBTQ+ Psychology: A Critical Discussion | | The Future of Clinical and Health Psychology: Views from the Lab and the Field |
| 3:00 | Poster Session | Critical Conversations: How to Master the Internship Application Process | |
| 4:00 | It's Time to Address Spirituality and Religion in Psychological Practice | Catch More Issues in Less Time: Roles of Assessment to Enhance Psychotherapy | Psychological Assessment: Recent Progress and Future Directions |

Invited Address

Symposium 2.0

Critical Conversation

Skill Building

*Sessions offering CE credits have been reviewed and approved by the American Psychological Association Office of Continuing Education in Psychology (CEP) and the Continuing Education Committee (CEC) to offer CE credits for psychologists. The CEP Office and the CEC maintain responsibility for the delivery of the programs.