A Note from your 2025 Program Chairs

We invite you to join the Society for Clinical Psychology (SCP, Division 12) this August in Denver, Colorado for the 2025 APA Convention. Coming together as a professional community is more valuable than ever.

This year's Division 12 Program offers a lineup of events designed to inspire connection, collaboration, and innovation in clinical psychology. Highlights include:

- Research presentations and symposia
- Skills-Building Sessions
- Critical Conversations
- Poster Sessions: We will be hosting one virtual and two in-person poster sessions.

We're especially excited for the SCP Presidential Address given by Dr. A. Jordan Wright and our awards ceremony and social gathering on Friday evening, August 8th. This will be a great opportunity to celebrate our community and accomplishments!

We look forward to seeing you in Denver!

Lauren Ehrlich, PhD & Sara Lowmaster, PhD
2025 Society for Clinical Psychology Program Co-Chairs

Welcome to the 133rd APA Annual Convention

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to APA 2025--Perspectives Power Possibilities--this year in Denver! The theme for the Society of Clinical Psychology (SCP)-Division 12 Convention is "Broadening Our Perspectives on What Makes Good Psychological Science." Drs. Lauren Erlich and Sara Lowmaster, this year's SCP Convention Chairs, have created a dynamic program from the record number of top-notch submissions. A special thank you to all who submitted abstracts this year, as well as those who reviewed them!

There are many incredible presentations, symposia, critical conversations, and skill building workshops that I want to highlight! They represent the broad scope of clinical psychology, from skills related to psychotherapy, such as "Transtheoretical Case Formulation and Treatment Planning" and "Innovative Group Interventions for Skill-Building and Resilience," to emerging trends, like "Psychedelics and Clinical Health Psychology" and "Politics of Division and the Future for Psychology," to issues in training the next generation of clinical psychologists, such as "A Unifying Model for Competencies in Health Service Psychology." I'll be focusing my Presidential Address across all three of those domains: "Envisioning Clinical Psychology's Future through Psychological Assessment."

I also encourage you to look at all the wonderful programming supported by our sections, which, as always, drive the field forward!

I want to personally invite you to take a chance and attend the APA convention, whether you've been before or not. Although it is large in scale compared to many conferences, the opportunities to network with the division and meet colleagues from across the country are unparalleled. The SCP board, our Program Chairs, and our wonderful administrative lead Tara Craighead create a welcoming and supportive experience amidst the flurry of activity. Plus, you can come meet your division leaders and join in the celebration as we honor SCP Fellows and SCP Award Winners at a special ceremony and reception!

On behalf the Board of SCP, I hope to see you in Denver!

Warmest regards,

A. Jordan Wright, PhD, ABAP, ABPP, President, SCP, APA

About SCP

With more than 3,000 full time members and 500 student members, the Society of Clinical Psychology is one of the American Psychological Association's largest divisions, representing the science and profession of clinical psychology to the APA and the public.

APA partnered with onPeak to negotiate the best room rates and give you an easy hotel booking experience. Please only book hotel reservations with our official housing partner onPeak. APA 2025 hotels are offering discounted rates that typically average 30% less than what you'll find on other travel sites. But don't delay — these special rates are only guaranteed from April 23 to July 21. For complete details, read our important hotel information.

Advantages of booking your hotel through onPeak

- Get special rates at the most convenient hotels for APA 2024. We've selected hotels within the vicinity of the Convention Center for your convenience.
- Earn rewards points from participating hotels. onPeak integrates with hotel rewards programs, allowing you to take advantage of your loyalty status.
- Ensure that your registration is secure. Large events like APA 2024 often attract scammers who sell fake hotel reservations. Book through onPeak to ensure that your reservation is legitimate.
- Keep hotel costs down for future conventions. Booking your stay through onPeak helps us negotiate better room rates for attendees in subsequent years and avoid attrition fees.
- Take advantage of flexible change and cancellation policies if your plans change.

Advances in Psychotherapy – Evidence-Based Practice

The series Advances in Psychotherapy - Evidence-Based Practice provides therapists with practical evidence-based guidance on the diagnosis and treatment of the most common disorders seen in clinical practice - and does so in a uniquely reader-friendly manner. One strand is dealing with specific disorders, another with methods and approaches. Each book is both a compact how-to reference for use by professional clinicians in their daily work, as well as an ideal educational resource for students and for practice-oriented continuing education. The most important feature of the books is that they are practical and reader-friendly. All have a similar structure, and each is a compact and easy-to-follow guide covering all aspects of practice that are relevant in real life. Tables, boxed clinical pearls, and marginal notes assist orientation, while checklists for copying and summary boxes provide tools for use in daily practice.

The series has been developed and is edited with the support of the Society of Clinical Psychology (APA Division 12).

Saturday

8:00am-9:00 AM

Session Type: Skill Building

Session Title: An Experiential Introduction to Catalyzing Therapy with Values and Reasons for Living

Speakers: Sean Barnes, Ph.D. and Lauren M. Borges

Session Description: Integrating valued living into therapy has the potential to optimize treatment engagement and make treatment about living rather than only decreasing symptoms or preventing behaviors (e.g., suicide). We will experientially explore methods to assess values and reasons for living and flexibly support clients in infusing meaning and vitality into life.

Location: 605, Colorado Convention Center, Street Level

8:00 - 9:00 AM

Session Type: Symposium

Session Title: Innovative group interventions for skill-building and resilience

Speakers: Selin Yalcinkaya, MS, Jennifer Keller, Ph.D., Daya Grewel, BS

Session Description: This symposium explores innovative strategies for empowering individuals at-risk or facing mental health challenges, featuring empowerment self-defense training and theater-based games as transformative tools. By blending physical and creative expression, these interventions foster resilience, build confidence, and promote positive change, offering new pathways for personal growth and emotional healing.

Location: 605, Colorado Convention Center, Street Level

1:30 -2:30 PM

Session Type: Skill Building

Session Title: WAIS-5 Special Group Studies: Implications for Assessment, Interpretation, and Diagnosis

Speakers: Andrea D. Turner, Ph.D.

Session Description: Results of special group studies from WAIS-5 standardization are reviewed and discussed, including administration and scoring procedures modified to better accommodate certain conditions, new clinically useful index and ancillary composite scores, and what these studies show regarding interpretation and diagnosis. Case examples from special group studies are presented and discussed.

Location: 605, Colorado Convention Center, Street Level

Association of Psychologist in Academic Health Centers

Session Type: Critical Conversation

Session Title: Where We Go From Here: Politics of Division and the Future for Psychology

Speakers: Amy Williams, Ph.D., Katherine B. McGuire, M.S.

Session Description: Psychologists working in academic health centers are directly impacted by both clinical reimbursement and research funding changes. These psychologists are also well-positioned to be strong advocates for psychology given their skills, experience, and relationships.

Location: Mile High Ballroom 1A, Colorado Convention Center, Street Level

CE Session - 1 CE Credit

3:00 - 4:00 PM

Session Type: Symposium

Session Title: How do Depressed Perinatal Individuals Perceive Brief Manualized Psychotherapy from Trained Nurses?

Speakers: Elizabeth L. Gregory, MS, Cassie Walker, Richard Silver, Laura La Porte, MA

Session Description: This session will explore the SUMMIT trial, which evaluated non-specialist providers (NSPs) delivering behavioral activation for perinatal depression. Participants will learn about the trial's results, training, and patient experiences. By sharing these insights, the session highlights task sharing as a potential solution to mental health treatment barriers in perinatal care.

Location: 607, Colorado Convention Center, Street Level

4:30 - 5:0 PM

Session Type: Critical Conversation

Session Title: Cultural Considerations for Psychological Assessments in the Inpatient Settings

Speakers: Rachel W. Wong, PGSP, Flora Ma, Ph.D., Connor Adams, Psy.D.

Session Description: The presentation will describe the role of psychological assessment in clinical care within psychiatric inpatient settings. Assessment is crucial to gather sufficient information to accurately diagnose and treat patients in acute distress. More specifically, the presentation will explore cultural considerations related to providing and interpreting psychological assessments in this setting.

Location: Mile High Ballroom 1A, Colorado Convention Center, Street Level

Member Categories

FULL MEMBERS have a demonstrated interest and active engagement in practice, research, teaching, administration, and/or study in the field of Clinical Psychology with training appropriate to the conduct of such clinical activities. They must also be full members of APA. Full members may vote on any Division 12 nominations ballot. Membership also includes subscription to the journal, Clinical Psychology: Science and Practice.

EARLY CAREER PSYCHOLOGIST (ECP) MEMBERS are early-career psychologists in the first four years after postdoctoral study who will learn more about activities and issues of interest to clinical psychologists, including reviewing for journals, mentoring, and much more. Membership includes online subscriptions to the Division 12 journal and newsletter. ECP members may attend the Society's meetings and participate in APA Convention events geared to early-career psychologists. They may also join the Division 12 Listserv, exclusively for Society members.

AFFILIATE MEMBERS are those who may or may not be members of APA and may not have received a clinical degree but who have demonstrated interest in and active engagement in practice, research, teaching, administration, and/or study in the field of clinical psychology. Affiliate members have no vote on Division 12 nomination ballots. Affiliate Membership is $63 per year.

STUDENT MEMBERS are undergraduate, graduate, and postdoctoral students who will learn more about activities and issues of interest to clinical psychologists. Membership benefits include: affirming your future identity as a clinical psychologist, advocacy for the integration of science and practice, opportunities for networking and involvement in a professional society, as well as the mentorship and student awards programs, and electronic access to the journal Clinical Psychology: Science and Practice. Student members may attend the Society's meetings, without vote, and participate in APA Convention events geared to clinical psychology graduate students. They may join the Division 12 Listserv geared to clinical psychology graduate students. They may also join the Division 12 Listserv exclusively for Society members.

PLEASE NOTE: APA Early Career Psychologist (ECP) and student memberships are separate from the Society's. While APA membership is recommended, the Society does not require student or ECP members to be APA members. For APA membership information, contact the APA Office in Washington, D.C. at (800) 374-2721.

MEMBERSHIP DETAILS

Membership is based on the calendar year, but applications can be submitted at any time. If your application is for the current year, your membership will be dated January 1 of this year. For applications received after August 1, membership will begin January 1 of next year.
